“I wanted to let you know how pleased we are with our new church business directory. The process was very simple and your employees were friendly and made the job of laying out the directory a simple one.

We are happy with the finished product as well as the online directory. Both of these tools are valuable to us as we can now point people to them when they call looking for various products and services.

Our business owners have also been very positive regarding the directory. I have had lots of positive feedback from them on the look of the directory.”
